Why CNB Bank?

“CNB is a community inspired and driven bank. We are a very family-oriented company with a focus on a positive culture for all employees.”

Meet Matthew Duggan, CNB Bank’s Assistant Vice President & Residential Lender.

Matthew holds a BS in Entrepreneurship and Marketing from Shepherd University and an AA in Marketing and Finance from Frederick Community College. Matthew is a 2019 graduate of the Martinsburg-Berkeley County Chamber of Commerce’s Leadership Berkeley program.

Matthew is an active contributor in the community and is involved in various organizations such as the Eastern Panhandle Board of Realtors where he is the Vice Chair of the Community Service Committee, the Eastern Panhandle Home Builders Association (EPHBA), the Martinsburg Centennial Lions Club, and Morgan, Berkeley, Jefferson, and Washington County Chambers of Commerce. Matthew was awarded the EPHBA Presidential Award in 2018.

In Matthew’s two and a half short years in the banking industry, he has made a big impact. He is known for his active social media presence and down to earth personality. When Matthew isn’t at the closing table, you can find him camping, spending time with his family, and enjoying his love of cars.
