Why CNB Bank?

“CNB takes the time to listen to your situation and offers a solution customized to your needs based on our knowledge and experience.”

Meet Kevin Starliper, CNB Bank’s Senior Vice President / Chief Lending Officer.

Kevin holds a BS in Business Administration and Economics from Shepherd University, where he was recognized as a McMurrin Scholar, and an MBA from Frostburg University. He is also a graduate of Stonier Graduate School of Banking, West Virginia Banker’s Association Banking School, and Leadership Berkeley through the Martinsburg-Berkeley County Chamber of Commerce.

Kevin is an active contributor in the community. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Martinsburg-Berkeley County Chamber of Commerce and as Chairman of the Government Affairs Committee. Kevin is also the Past Chairman of the Berkeley County Development Authority, and a past member of the Shepherd University Alumni Association. He is a Paul Harris Fellow of the Martinsburg Noon Rotary Club, and member for both the Eastern Panhandle Home Builders Association and Eastern Panhandle Business Association.

With 27 years of banking experience, the financial industry is one of Kevin’s passions. When he’s not in the office, you can find him hiking, fishing, hunting, and even cooking. He also enjoys playing tennis and has played since his days at Martinsburg High School.
