C. Dwayne Shrader promoted to Senior Vice President

<Spring Mills, WV, February 25, 2022> Mark Harrell, President and CEO of CNB Bank, Inc., is proud to announce Dwayne Shrader's promotion to Senior Vice President.

Dwayne is a lifelong resident of Hagerstown, Maryland. With 44 years of experience in the banking industry, he brings a wealth of knowledge to the team.

Dwayne is a graduate of the Leadership Hagerstown Class of XIV, the Central Atlantic School of Commercial Lending, and the RMA East Carolina University of Advanced Commercial Lending School.

Dwayne is active in the Washington County community. He is a member of the Hagerstown Sunrise Rotary. He serves on the Board of the Community Health Care Center Foundation and is a past Board Member and President of the W-House Foundation.

Dwayne is well-known for his charisma and his positive attitude. When he isn't helping one of his clients get to the closing table, you can find him collecting antiques, taking long walks, or trying a new restaurant. He loves to travel and is always looking forward to his next trip! When you meet Dwayne, you'll have to ask him where he's headed next!

Harrell said, "Dwayne's banking expertise is invaluable to us. His knowledge of our local communities is one of his many strong attributes and his wealth of banking experience gives him the ability to customize the best financial solutions for our customers."

CNB Bank is a full-service bank with assets over $500 million dollars. CNB Bank has eight locations including Berkeley County and Morgan County, West Virginia and Hagerstown and Hancock, Maryland. CNB Bank is a locally owned community bank serving the tri-state area and has been committed to its communities for over 86 years. Being a community bank allows CNB Bank to make decisions locally to better serve the residents and businesses of the region.