Why CNB Bank?

“CNB Bank appreciates the important role of a local independent community bank where customers can find financial solutions delivered by people they know and trust. As a community bank, we have a familiarity with and understanding of our customers that large national and regional banks just can’t match.”

Meet Mark Harrell, CNB Bank’s President & CEO.

Mark is a lifelong resident of the community. He is a graduate of Towson University where he earned a B.S. in Finance and Economics. He is also a graduate of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association of Commercial Lending and of the Maryland Bankers Association Advanced School of Executive Management.

Mark is passionate about his community involvement and encourages others to get involved as well. He is currently Board Chair of the Washington County Chamber of Commerce, Board Vice-Chair of Hospice of the Panhandle, Board Chair of War Memorial Hospital Foundation, Education Committee Member of the Independent Community Bankers Association (ICBA) and serves on the Greater Hagerstown Committee. Mark is a member of the Morgan County Chamber of Commerce, member and Past President of Berkeley Springs Rotary, Past President of the Hagerstown Community College Foundation and Past President of the Community Bankers Association of West Virginia.

With over 30 years of banking experience, Mark has witnessed many changes in the industry and the community. He prides himself on CNB Bank’s team and their ability to adapt and evolve. ‘With a commitment to excellence, CNB Bank continues to introduce new products and services, expand our online presence and grow within our markets.’

Mark and his wife, Trish, reside in Berkeley County and have three grown children. They enjoy traveling and can’t wait until they can plan their next family vacation. For now, they’re enjoying their empty nest and are anxiously awaiting grandchildren!
